

Humanities 205: World Literature
Take A Special Class. Read Some Great Books.
Talk About It on Television.

This Fall Channel 20 Television Will Broadcast A Two Hour Great Books Town Hall Meeting Featuring Great Books Students and Faculty.

One of Them Could Be You. Here's How:

By enrolling in World Literature 205 you will read and discuss the four works that will be discussed on the November television show along with other literary masterpieces from around the world. Doing this also earns you the right to talk about these works on the show.

World Lit 205 is conducted in an informal roundtable setting.

It earns elective college Humanities credit and Great Books certification credit.

Seating is limited so register early.

Prof. Gans Humanities 205 World Lit Section: 41 205 09

Great Books Curriculum: Dedicated to the best that has been thought and said.